A vibrant, stylized illustration of a landscape. In the top left, a large, bright yellow sun with a white outline is partially obscured by a white cloud. Several thick, yellow and white rays of light emanate from the sun, shining down towards a stone structure in the foreground. A multi-colored rainbow arches across the middle of the scene. The landscape features green hills and a grey stone structure with a dark brown top. The sky is a solid light blue, and the ground is a dark blue. The text is written in a simple, black, sans-serif font, positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image.
