A vibrant illustration featuring a multi-colored rainbow (red, orange, yellow, green, blue) arching over a landscape. The sky is a clear, bright blue. In the foreground, there is a green field. To the left, a large, multi-tiered wooden structure, possibly a stage or a platform, is shown in shades of brown and tan. In the background, a dark grey mountain range is visible under a bright sun partially obscured by a white cloud. The text is written in a simple, white, sans-serif font on the right side of the image.
