

Bible for Children
presents

GOD HONORS
JOSEPH
THE SLAVE

Written by: Edward Hughes

Illustrated by: M. Maillot ; Lazarus

Adapted by: M. Maillot; Sarah S; Alastair P.

Produced by: Bible for Children
www.M1914.org

©2021 Bible for Children, Inc.

License: You have the right to copy or print this story,
as long as you do not sell it.

Joseph was wrongly placed in prison by his former master, Potiphar. In prison, Joseph was obedient and helpful.

The warden trusted Joseph to organize prison life. Because God was with Joseph, prison became a better place for everybody.

The king's baker and butler were in jail.

"Why are you so sad?"
Joseph

asked them
one day.

"No one can show us
what our dreams
mean," the troubled
men replied.

"God can!" Joseph said. "Tell me the dreams."

"Your dream means that in three days you will be back in King Pharaoh's favor," Joseph told the butler. "Remember me and ask Pharaoh to free

The baker's dream held bad news. "You will die in three days," Joseph said. Both dreams came true.

But the butler forgot about Joseph until Pharaoh woke up troubled one day. "I've

had a dream,"
he cried.

None of his wise men could show him its meaning. Then the butler remembered Joseph in prison. He told Pharaoh about him.

Pharaoh sent for Joseph immediately. "Your dream is a message from God," Joseph told the king.

"Egypt will have seven years of plenty, then seven years of awful famine."

"Plan now to store food during the seven good years," Joseph advised Pharaoh, "or your people will starve to death in the famine."

"God is with you,"
Pharaoh declared.
"You will take charge in Egypt,
second
only to me."

Seven years of plenty came.
Then seven years of famine.

Food was scarce everywhere except in Egypt where they had wisely stored huge supplies.

In Joseph's far off homeland,
Jacob's family was starving.

People from all countries went to Egypt to buy grain.

"You must go, too," Jacob commanded his sons, "or we will starve to death."

Arriving in Egypt, the sons prepared to buy food.

Jacob's sons bowed low before the lordly person in charge of Egypt. They did not recognize Joseph, their brother. But Joseph knew them.

Joseph remembered his boyhood dreams. God had raised him above his brothers.

Joseph was very wise. He spoke roughly and kept his brother Simeon hostage.

"Take food, go home and return with your youngest brother," he ordered. "Then I will know you are not spies."

The brothers thought God might be punishing them for selling Joseph as a slave many years before.

Jacob and his sons were confused.
"Our money was returned in the grain. And the ruler said we must bring Benjamin."

Jacob would not let Benjamin go.
But soon the food was used up. The brothers had to go back to Egypt. Benjamin went with them.

When Joseph saw Benjamin he ordered his servants to prepare a great feast. The brothers were invited.

"Is your father alive and well?"
Joseph asked. Perhaps he was thinking of how he could bring the whole family together.

Joseph also wanted to know if his brothers were really sorry for their sin of many years before.

After the banquet he accused them of stealing.

"To punish you, I will keep Benjamin as my slave," Joseph said. "My lord, take my life instead,"

begged Judah.

Joseph knew that Judah,
who had suggested
selling Joseph,
was truly
changed.

No longer able to hide his love for his family Joseph sent all the Egyptians out. Then he began to weep.

"I am Joseph
your brother,
whom you sold into Egypt."

Amazed
and afraid,
the brothers
said
nothing.

Joseph
encouraged his brothers.

"God made me lord
in Egypt so

I could save your lives in this famine.

Go, bring my father. I will look after you."

Jacob
and Joseph were reunited
in Egypt and ...

... the whole family lived there in peace and plenty.

God Honors Joseph the Slave

A story from God's Word, the Bible, is found in

Genesis 39 to 45

"The entrance of Your Words gives light."

Psalm 119:130

The End

This Bible story tells us about our wonderful God who made us and who wants us to know Him.

God knows we have done bad things, which He calls sin. The punishment for sin is death, but God loves us so much He sent His Son, Jesus, to die on a Cross and be punished for our sins. Then Jesus came back to life and went home to Heaven! If you believe in Jesus and ask Him to forgive your sins, He will do it! He will come and live in you now, and you will live with Him forever.

If you want to turn from your sins,
say this to God:

Dear God, I believe that Jesus died for me and now lives again. Please come into my life and forgive my sins, so that I can have new life now, and one day go to be with You forever. Help me to live for You as Your child. Amen.

Read the Bible and talk with God every day! John 3:16

