When the woman tried to force him, he ran. But she caught and held his coat.

“Your slave attacked me,” Potiphar’s wife complained. “See, here’s his coat!” Potiphar was angry.

Maybe he knew his wife was lying. But he had to do something. What would he do?

Potiphar put Joseph in prison. Although he was innocent, Joseph was not bitter or angry.

Perhaps he was learning from his hardships that no matter where he was, if he honored God, God would honor him - even in jail.

A Favorite Son Becomes a Slave
A story from God’s Word, the Bible, is found in Genesis 37 and 39

"The entrance of Your Words gives light." Psalm 119:130

God knows we have done bad things, which He calls sin. The penalty for sin is death.

God loves us so much He sent His Son, Jesus, to die on a Cross and pay our penalty. Jesus came alive and went back to Heaven! Now God can forgive our sins.

If you want to turn from your sins, say this to God: Dear God, I believe Jesus died for me and now lives again. Please come into my life and forgive my sins, so I can have new life now, and then be with You forever. Help me live for You as Your child. Amen. John 3:16

Story 7 of 60

Isaac was very happy. His son Jacob was home. Even Esau welcomed the brother he once vowed to kill.

But Jacob’s sons were not happy because Joseph, their younger brother, was father’s favorite.
Joseph's brothers became more angry when he told them his dreams. "My sheaf of grain stood tall and my brothers' sheaves bowed in honor," Joseph said. This dream meant Joseph would be more important than his brothers.

Reuben, the oldest brother disagreed. "We must not shed blood," he said. "See, here's a pit. Let him die there!" Reuben planned to rescue Joseph at night-fall.

While Reuben was absent, a caravan of camels drew near on their way to distant Egypt. "Let's sell Joseph," cried Judah, his brother. The deal was made. They sold Joseph for twenty pieces of silver.

Tearful and afraid, Joseph watched helplessly as the lurching camel led him away from his family and homeland.

"God is with you. I want you to be my chief servant, in charge of all my business and master of all my other servants."

"Is this Joseph's coat? It's bloody. We found it in the desert." The cruel brothers allowed Jacob to believe a wild animal had killed his favorite son. Jacob tore his clothes and mourned. Nobody could comfort him.

"All you do turns out well," Potiphar told Joseph one day.

"God gave Potiphar good harvests and many riches because of Joseph. Now an important man, Joseph still trusted and served God faithfully. But trouble came to Joseph.

In Egypt, Joseph must have been afraid and lonely. Maybe he longed for home. But he could not escape.

"Let's sell Joseph," cried Judah, his brother.
