When Jesus went to the Temple one day, He found people dishonoring God's House.

They were selling animals and exchanging money right in the Temple!

Making a whip from cords, Jesus drove the dealers out of the Temple. "Take these things away," He commanded.

"Don't make my Father's House a place of business." Jesus loved His Father's House.

The leaders demanded a sign to show that Jesus had the right to clear the Temple.

"Destroy this temple and I will raise it in three days," Jesus replied. Impossible! The Temple took forty-six years to build.

But Jesus spoke of His body. Like the Temple, His body was
God's
dwelling
place.

Though Jesus would die on the cross
He knew God
would raise
Him from death on the third day.

At night, one of the temple leaders visited Jesus. He knew by the miracles that Jesus was sent by God.

Nicodemus
came to Jesus to learn more about God.

Jesus told Nicodemus that people must be born
again to enter God's Kingdom.
Nicodemus
did not understand.

How could a grown man become a baby again? Besides, he was religious. Was that not enough?

"That which is born of the spirit is spirit," Jesus explained. "God's Spirit is like the wind."

People do not see or understand the wind. They only see what the wind does."

Jesus reminded Nicodemus about the children of Israel complaining to Moses long ago.

"We have no food, no water, and we hate the bread God gives us," they cried.

The people's sin
angered God. He sent fiery serpents among them. The serpents bit the people. Many died.

"We have sinned. Pray that the LORD will take away the serpents," the people begged.

So Moses prayed for them. But God did not take away the serpents.

God told Moses to make a fiery serpent and set it on a pole. "Everyone who is bitten will live when he looks at the serpent on the pole," God promised.

Moses made a
brass serpent and
those who looked at it were healed.

Jesus told Nicodemus that

the Son of man
must be lifted up
just like the
brass
serpent.

Jesus spoke of the cross where
He would die
for sinners.

Jesus said,

"God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten
Son, ...

... that

whoever believes
in Him should not perish but have
everlasting
life."

This means that
whoever believes
in Jesus is born into God's family.

Maybe Nicodemus did not become a disciple of Jesus that night.

But years later, Nicodemus showed that he loved and believed in Jesus by helping to bury the crucified Son of God.

After this, Jesus and His disciples set out to travel North.

Other people needed to hear about God's Kingdom, and have the chance to believe in Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of God.

The End

This Bible story tells us about our wonderful God who made us and who wants us to know Him.

God knows we have done bad things, which He calls sin. The punishment for sin is death, but God loves us so much He sent His Son, Jesus, to die on a Cross and be punished for our sins. Then Jesus came back to life and went home to Heaven! If you believe in Jesus and ask Him to forgive your sins, He will do it! He will come and live in you now, and you will live with Him forever.

If you want to turn from your sins,
say this to God:

Dear God, I believe that Jesus died for me and now lives again. Please come into my life and forgive my sins, so that I can have new life now, and one day go to be with You forever. Help me to live for You as Your child. Amen.

Read the Bible and talk with God every day! John 3:16
