Jonah was so angry with God that he said, “Take my life from me; for death is better for me than life.”

Jonah sat outside the city, waiting to see what God would do next. The LORD God prepared a vine with big leaves. It grew quickly, and shaded Jonah from the hot sun all day.

Then the LORD said to Jonah, “Have you any right to be angry? You had pity on the vine, for which you did no work and which you did not grow. It came up in a night and died in a night.

The next morning, God sent a worm, which killed the plant. Then, the LORD prepared a hot, strong wind that blasted Jonah until he thought he would die. All of this made Jonah even angrier.

Many years ago, a man named Jonah lived in the land of Israel. One day, God told him to go to Nineveh, the biggest, most powerful city in the world.

Why should I not have mercy on Nineveh, that great city, with its thousands of people?”

Written by Edward Hughes
Adapted by Mary-Anne S.
Illustrated by Jonathan Hay

M1914.org
Bible for Children, PO Box 3, Winnipeg MB R3C 2G1 Canada

License: You have the right to copy or print this story, as long as you do not sell it.

“Why should I not have mercy on Nineveh, that great city, with its thousands of people?”

“Why should I not have mercy on Nineveh, that great city, with its thousands of people?”

God knows we have done bad things, which He calls sin. The penalty for sin is death.

God loves us so much He sent His Son, Jesus, to die on a Cross and pay our penalty. Jesus came alive and went back to Heaven! Now God can forgive our sins.

If you want to turn from your sins, say this to God: Dear God, I believe Jesus died for me and now lives again. Please come into my life and forgive my sins, so I can have new life now, and then be with You forever. Help me live for You as Your child. Amen. John 3:16

Read the Bible and talk to God every day!
Jonah disobeyed God! Instead of going to Nineveh, Jonah got onto a ship and sailed away in the opposite direction to a place called Tarshish.

The storm got worse and worse. Terrified, the sailors prayed to their gods and threw all the cargo overboard to lighten the ship. But nothing helped.

The sailors soon decided that their trouble had something to do with Jonah. He told them that he was running away from the LORD. They asked, “What should we do to you, so that the sea may become calm for us?”

“Pick me up and throw me into the sea,” Jonah replied. “For I am certain that because of me this great storm has come on you.”

The sailors didn't want to throw Jonah overboard. So they rowed hard to bring the ship to land. But they couldn't. There was only one thing to do!

Three days later, Jonah finally promised to obey God. Right away, God spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah on to the beach.

Jonah was the only person on board who wasn’t praying. Instead, he was lying down inside the ship, sound asleep. The ship’s captain found him. "What are you doing sleeping? Get up! Say a prayer to your God! Maybe God will think of us, so that we will not be destroyed.”

The sudden change in the weather scared the sailors more than the storm did. They must have known only God could do that. In fear and wonder, they worshiped the LORD.

The people of Nineveh believed God’s word. They went without food, and wore sackcloth to show God they were sorry for their sins. Even the king humbled himself before God. He got off his throne, put on sackcloth, and sat in ashes. He commanded everyone to turn from their wicked ways and violence, and to pray that the LORD would forgive them.

Why was Jonah angry? He told God, “I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and great in kindness.” In other words, Jonah knew that God always forgives those who are sorry for their sins and obey God’s Word. It seems that Jonah didn't like the people of Nineveh. He didn't want them to be forgiven.