But, after the seventh march on the seventh day the priest blew the ram’s horn. And just as God had promised... THE GREAT WALLS OF JERICHO CRUMBLED!

Quickly, Joshua’s men rescued Rahab and her family. Then Jericho was destroyed, as God commanded.

Solemnly, Joshua dedicated Jericho’s gold, silver, and treasures to God’s service. Then he placed a curse upon anyone who would rebuild the wicked city.

God promised Joshua victory and prosperity in the Promised Land if the people would always obey God’s Word.

Soon everybody in Canaan heard how Joshua defeated Jericho. They knew that God was with His people.

If you want to turn from your sins, say this to God: Dear God, I believe Jesus died for me and now lives again. Please come into my life and forgive my sins, so I can have new life now, and then be with You forever. Help me live for You as Your child. Amen. John 3:16

Read the Bible and talk to God every day!

God knows we have done bad things, which He calls sin. The penalty for sin is death.

God loves us so much He sent His Son, Jesus, to die on a Cross and pay our penalty. Jesus came alive and went back to Heaven! Now God can forgive our sins.

Moses was dead. Joshua knew God had now chosen him to lead the Israelites. Before Joshua prepared his army, he had to prepare himself.
Wisely, the new leader sent spies into Canaan to study the defenses of the great city of Jericho. Israel's first battle would be fought there.

The search began at Rahab's house, where the men were staying. The soldiers banged roughly on her door. Quickly, Rahab hid the men under some flax.

Why did she help the spies? Because she knew God was with them. She wanted God to spare her life. The spies promised to save Rahab and her family.

Before reaching Jericho, the Israelites had to cross the Jordan River into Canaan, the Promised Land.

But there was no bridge! How would the people cross?

Jericho had strong, thick walls.

At the priests' feet touched the river's edge, God did a miracle. God made a dry path right through the water.

After all the people had crossed safely, they placed twelve big stones in the river bed and another twelve stones on Canaan's river bank. These were reminders to help the people teach their children about God's great power and love.

Joshua and his army did just as God had commanded. Perhaps the people in Jericho laughed at them.

As Joshua planned his attack, God sent the Captain of His army from Heaven to remind Israel's new leader that God wins the battles for His people.

God told Joshua how to attack Jericho. It was a very strange plan.

God's people had to march around the city once a day for six days, and seven times on the seventh day. Then they were to blow trumpets and shout, and the city walls would fall down flat!
