Saul may have thought it was a small sin. But disobedience to God is always serious.

Another time, God ordered Saul to destroy the wicked people of Amalek. But Saul and the people let King Agag of Amalek live.

They also kept valuables, sheep and oxen. Saul said they had kept these things to sacrifice to the LORD.

Samuel told Saul, “To obey is better than sacrifice. You have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel.”

Saul was very sorry for his sin. But it was too late. The rest of his life was unhappy because he would not obey the LORD.

The Handsome Foolish King
A story from God’s Word, the Bible, is found in 1 Samuel 8-16

"The entrance of Your Words gives light.”
Psalm 119:130

God knows we have done bad things, which He calls sin. The penalty for sin is death.

God loves us so much He sent His Son, Jesus, to die on a Cross and pay our penalty. Jesus came alive and went back to Heaven! Now God can forgive our sins.

If you want to turn from your sins, say this to God: Dear God, I believe Jesus died for me and now lives again. Please come into my life and forgive my sins, so I can have new life now, and then be with You forever. Help me live for You as Your child. Amen. John 3:16

Read the Bible and talk to God every day!

Written by Edward Hughes
Illustrated by Janie Forest
Adapted by Lyn Doerksen

M1914.org
Bible for Children, PO Box 3, Winnipeg MB R3C 2G1 Canada
License: You have the right to copy or print this story, as long as you do not sell it.
Something had to be done. One day, the elders of Israel gathered together and asked Samuel for help. "Give us a king to judge us," the elders demanded. They did not want Samuel’s wicked sons to judge them. They wanted a king just like all the nations around them.

When Samuel prayed, the LORD said, "They have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them. They have served other gods. Heed their voice and make them a king."

God told Samuel to warn the people that their earthly king would take their money in taxes; help himself to their best fields and vineyards; order their sons into his armies; and command their daughters to work for him. But the people wanted a king anyway.

News of the threat reached King Saul. He got his army ready. Soon King Saul was tested. The Ammonites, who hated Israel, surrounded an Israelite city and threatened to put out every man’s right eye. What a cruel plan!

Obediently, Samuel anointed Saul as king of Israel. When he presented Saul to the people of Israel, they cried, "Long live the King!"

God gave Saul a great victory that day. But Saul did not always honor God. One day, before fighting the Philistines, Saul offered a sacrifice to God. He knew that was Samuel’s job. He knew God wanted him to wait until Samuel came to do it. But Saul disobeyed God!

When Samuel arrived, he told Saul, "You have done foolishly. You have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God. Now your kingdom shall not continue."