Together, they carried the news to the Hebrew leaders. When Moses showed the signs to the Hebrew elders, they knew God would help them.

Bravely, Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh. "God says, 'Let my people go',' they told him.

"I will not let Israel go," Pharaoh answered. He would not obey God.

Together, they bowed in worship.

"I will not let Israel go," Pharaoh answered. He would not obey God.

Glancing around to make sure nobody was watching, Moses attacked the cruel slave master. In the fight which followed, Moses killed the Egyptian. Quickly, he buried the body.

God would have to use His great power to change Pharaoh’s mind.

God knows we have done bad things, which He calls sin. The penalty for sin is death.

God loves us so much He sent His Son, Jesus, to die on a Cross and pay our penalty. Jesus came alive and went back to Heaven! Now God can forgive our sins.

If you want to turn from your sins, say this to God: Dear God, I believe Jesus died for me and now lives again. Please come into my life and forgive my sins, so I can have new life now, and then be with You forever. Help me live for You as Your child. Amen. John 3:16

Read the Bible and talk to God every day!
While Moses rested by a well, the seven daughters of the priest of Midian filled the troughs to water their father’s flock.

"You’re home early!" Reuel, the girls’ father exclaimed. When the girls explained why, he said, "Bring the man here." Moses lived with Reuel, who was also called Jethro. Later, Moses married Reuel’s oldest daughter.

Moses did not know it, but God planned to use him to help the enslaved Hebrews. Forty years had passed since Moses left Egypt. He was shepherd of Reuel’s flock. But he must have missed his own people in Egypt.

One day Moses noticed a nearby bush on fire. But the fire did not burn the bush. Moses decided to find out why.

As Moses approached, God called to him out of the bush. "Moses!" "Here I am," said Moses. "Don’t get too close," God said. "Take off your sandals, because the place where you stand is holy ground."

"Put your hand on your chest," He commanded. Moses did so. His hand turned white with leprosy!

When Moses picked up the serpent by the tail it became a rod once more. God gave another sign.

Then God showed Moses His great power. He turned Moses’ rod into a serpent.

The next day, Moses saw two Hebrews fighting. One said, "Will you kill me as you killed the Egyptian?" Moses was afraid. Everybody knew about yesterday. Pharaoh knew. Moses had to escape. He went to a country called Midian.

"I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people out of Egypt," God said. But Moses was afraid to go.

When he did it again, his hand was healed.

They prayed for God’s help! God heard their prayers.

Back in Egypt, Pharaoh died. God’s people, the Hebrews, were still slaves. How they groaned in their suffering!

How they prayed for God’s help! God heard their prayers.

When Moses returned to Jethro, packed his belongings and left for Egypt.

God led Moses’ brother Aaron to meet Moses in the mountains. Moses told Aaron all about God’s plan to set the Hebrew people free from the Egyptians.

When Moses picked up the serpent by the tail it became a rod once more. God gave another sign.

Other shepherds tried to push them aside. Moses protected and helped the women.
