A vibrant cartoon illustration featuring a multi-colored rainbow arching across a bright blue sky. The rainbow's colors are red, orange, yellow, green, light blue, dark blue, and purple. On the right side, a dark grey, jagged volcano is shown with a small white figure wearing a red hat and a white mask standing on its peak. The figure appears to be looking towards the rainbow. The background is a solid light blue. There are two white, fluffy clouds: one on the left and one on the right. The text is written in a simple, black, sans-serif font.
