A colorful illustration of a landscape. In the background, a bright blue sky features a large, multi-colored rainbow (red, orange, yellow, green, blue) and a white sun partially obscured by a white cloud. The foreground consists of a green hillside on the left and a grey path leading towards a large, multi-tiered wooden structure on the right. The structure is made of horizontal wooden planks and has a small rectangular opening near the bottom. The text is overlaid on the green hillside.
